Stanley reserves the right to amend his Answer with regard to the Paragraphs set forth above and/or in response to allegations made by Clark currently and/or at any time in the future as may become necessary.

II.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

FIRST DEFENSE

Clark's First Amended Complaint fails to state a cause of action upon which relief may be granted against Stanley.

SECOND DEFENSE

Clark's First Amended Complaint is or may be barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statutes of limitations.

THIRD DEFENSE

Clark's First Amended Complaint is barred by the doctrine of laches.

FOURTH DEFENSE

Stanley denies that Clark has incurred any injury or damages; however, as to any injury or damages alleged to have been incurred. Clark voluntarily and knowingly assumed the risk of incurring any of the injuries or damages alleged in Clark's First Amended Complaint, and, therefore, Clark is not entitled to recover from Stanley.

FIFTH DEFENSE

Stanley denies that Clark has incurred any damages. However, as to any injury or damages alleged to have been incurred, Clark failed to exercise ordinary care and such failure on its part proximately caused any alleged damages complained of and, therefore, Clark is not entitled to recover from Stanley.

SIXTH DEFENSE

No act or omission of Stanley either proximately caused or contributed to whatever damage the Clark may have sustained and on account thereof, Clark is not entitled to recover any sum of Stanley.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

Clark proximately caused or contributed to the alleged damages complained of in Clark's First Amended Complaint.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

The claims asserted in Clark's First Amended Complaint are barred or reduced by the doctrines of contributory negligence or comparative negligence.

NINTH DEFENSE

The occurrence complained of was caused, produced and brought about directly and proximately by the acts and/or omissions of some person, persons or entity for whom Stanley was not responsible, and on account thereof, Clark is not entitled to recover any sum from Stanley.

TENTH DEFENSE

If there is any actionable liability of Stanley, which liability is specifically denied, such liability should be compared to the fault of the Clark and other parties and actors involved in the matters alleged in Clark's First Amended Complaint. Stanley alleges that any award made to Clark in this action must be proportionately allocated among Clark and any other parties or actors found to be culpable in accordance with the percentage of any negligence or fault attributable to each of said Clark and other parties and actors. Stanley further alleges that any party or actor found to be negligent or at fault with respect to Clark's alleged claims must be required to satisfy any such claim only in accordance with its proportional share of negligence or fault to be determined in this action.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

If Clark has received, or is now or subsequently becomes entitled to recover, any compensation or benefits from any source in connection with the harm alleged in Clark's First Amended Complaint, the amount of damages, if any, which may be recoverable from this suit shall be diminished by the amount of said recovery, compensation or benefits.

TWELFTH DEFENSE

Clark is estopped from asserting any claim against Stanley because of her own actions and inactions.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

Because of the generality of the allegations in Clark's First Amended Complaint, Stanley reserves the right to amend his Answer and Affirmative Defenses if investigation, discovery and further information should warrant such amendment, and, further, to assert any applicable matters of law during the pendency of this action.

FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

The instant action is barred by the doctrines of res judicata or collateral estoppel.

FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

The instant action is barred by waiver and estoppel.

SIXTEENTH DEFENSE

The instant action is barred by unclean hands.

SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE

Stanley asserts all affirmative defenses available which may be supported by any evidence in this action.

EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE

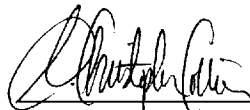

Stanley is entitled to recover its attorney's fees for defending this action due to the bad faith of Clark and also due to her stubborn litigiousness.

Stanley reserves the right to amend his Answer with regard to the Affirmative Defenses set forth above as may become necessary.

WHEREFORE, Defendant E. Paul Stanley respectfully demands judgment in his favor, all costs and attorney's fees for defending the action, and such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted this 31st day of March, 2008.
